Verão 80

Linda Kelleher.

I was a child
Who ran full of laughter
I was a child who lived for today
My eyes full of sunshine
My heart full of smiles

I was a child for a day
We were the children
Who sang in the morning
We were the children
Who laughed at the sun
Who listened to those who spoke with their wisdom
We were the ones who we would say, but We're getting older as times goes by

A little older with every day
We were the children of yesterday

We are the men who worry of nothing
We are the men who fight without aim Who listen to no one, yet speak of our wisdom
We are the pawns in the game

We're getting older as time goes by
A little older with every day
We were the children of yesrerday

Dear Linda,
It's really been a great 4 years. (Personally, each separate year went by pretty slowly, but now that I look back, where did all the time go to?)
The wonderful things that have been done to smooth my way and brighten my days at Lauderdale will always be tucked gratefully in my heart.
One thing I'll remember is your 4 ~~years~~ marking periods with Mrs. Keane! - And the play practices.
Good luck in your future plans. I hope I see you again at 'reunions' and stuff. (I can't wait!)

"you must admit it was a trip! We actually spent eight years together in this "moron factory": you were here even before me, ha! I'm so glad we have stayed so close after all this time I always new I could depend on you to be there if I needed you.

And you wonder where we're going. Where's the rhyme? Where's the reason? But it's you who can not accept it is here we must begin.

I'm glad you made it to the prom this year! Did you enjoy it? I don't have to say keep in touch cause I know we will.

Good Luck! Love,

Karen

How long has it been? Let's see - 8 yrs. The first day I met you I just knew we'd be best friends. Over the years we've had our ups & downs but this we've always been there for each other. I guess I've truly gotten to know you through our talks. It was quite a roller coaster ride but I wouldn't have traded it for anything. I think you're a very unique person, remember never lose your originality. Always be yourself. Love Andrea

Dear Linda,

You're such a wise-cracking, sarcastic, joking person - maybe that is why I like you. Knowing a person like you has been beneficial for me in that I feel I've been prepared for the criticisms of the harsh outside world, but I'll always readily like you even though I'm a very serious person!

Like the twilight in the road up ahead we must gather all our courage and sail our ships out on the open sea.

You are so funny

Love,

Kathryn L. Sammon

Dear Linda, well we made it, can you believe it! Thanks for being such a great friend, its been a lot of fun getting to know you. I'll never forget all the memories that you have been a part of especially the play and the prom. We did have a great time despite all the worries. Well I hate writing in these things I never know what to say. So take care and you better keep in touch and come visit me.

This new day is given to us, undluttered, fresh and clean.
Yesterday's troubles are in the past.
Tomorrow's may never be seen;
God has granted us this new day to do with as we will . . .
Let's fill it with kindness and

Dear Linda,
We may not be over endowed with intelligence - but boy, are we funny. I'll never forget you Linda. You made me laugh at so many things. I know you have a really special place in this world. and when you find it, never forget we're friends.
Love always,
Margaret

Linda,
Well at least you had a great time at the prom. You never did tell me if he ~~kissed you~~ goodnite!
Always remember the great times we've all had here. Good luck in the future
Love always
Gail

We're getting older as time goes by
